

30. The inciting incident isn't on the traditional plot diagram, but it's the "point of no return" in a story. It's the event that kick-starts the main character's journey.

31. Name the three primary types of Conflict:

- a. man vs man
- b. man vs himself
- c. man vs nature

32. A fable is a short literary work that often features animals or legendary creatures (such as unicorns) and illustrates a lesson.

33. What is anthropomorphism?

Human qualities and characteristics
given to animals in a literary work

34. What is verisimilitude?

an author's successful attempt in fiction
at portraying what is true (likeness + resemblance)

35. Tone is the author's attitude toward a subject, while mood is the emotion evoked in the reader by the text.

36. Identifying the genre of a book helps us categorize it. The three main categories are poetry, prose, and drama.