

Spring 2021	Topic Covered	Homework
17-Jan. 11	Intro to Shakespeare and “A Midsummer Night’s Dream”	Read Acts I and II; Answer response questions by Sunday night; Start brainstorming/working on book page
18-Jan. 18	Discussion	Finish “A Midsummer Night’s Dream”; Work on Book Page; Answer response questions by Sunday night
19-Jan. 25	Discussion	Finish book page and email by Sunday night
20-Feb.1	Intro to Agatha Christie and the Whodunnit	Then read Ch. 1-7 in And Then There Were None . Answer the response questions by Sunday night
21-Feb. 8	Discussion	Finish And Then There Were None . Answer the response questions by Sunday night
22-Feb. 15	Discussion; Intro to A Long Way Home	Read Prologue plus Ch. 1-6; Answer response questions by Sunday night
23-Feb. 22	Discussion	Finish A Long Way Home ; Answer response questions by Sunday night
24-March 1	Discussion; Research paper topic examples	Complete the essay portion of the mid-term on a new Google Doc and submit by Sunday night
25-March 8	Test on Shakespeare, Agatha Christie, and A Long Way Home (open notes)	Start thinking about your research paper topic. Email me your thoughts and topic ideas by Sun., March 21.
26- March 22	Intro to short stories; Research strategies	Read short stories; Answer response questions by Sunday night; Begin research and note-taking
27-March 29	Discussion	Read short stories; Answer response questions by Sunday night; Keep researching and note-taking
28-April 5	Discussion	Read short stories; Answer response questions by Sunday night; Submit outline by Monday, April 12
29-April 12	Discussion	Read short stories; Answer response questions by Sunday night; Submit first draft by Monday, April 19
30-April 19	Discussion	Read short stories; Answer response questions by Sunday night; Keep working on paper.
31-April 26	Discussion	Finalize research paper and submit by Friday, April 30
		Have a great summer!

SPRING BREAK March 18