Rewrite the following paragraph in active voice and tidy up other grammatical errors you find:

Last year my family was impacted by the pandemic when we were unable to travel for a family vacation or participate in extracurricular activities. Instead of spending money on going places landscaping around the house was worked on and other projects were tended to like rearranging rooms. Closets were cleaned out and lots of things were donated to area shelters. Since we could not go anywhere we decided to work on our home and make it a more pleasant place to live since we were home all the time.

Now you write a paragraph about what you've learned so far in Code Girls and keep it in active voice.
